

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

New London County

GLASGO

Recent Deaths—Getting Belfry at Bethel Ready for New Bell.

Stephen Kenyon died at the home of his son, Daniel Kenyon, Wednesday morning after an illness of several weeks.

The ladies of the Bethel society served a baked bean supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Young last Friday evening.

Mrs. E. A. Clark will entertain the Ladies' Aid society Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Smith of New London was a week end guest of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Peckie were recent visitors in Plainfield.

Miss Ethel Miller is teaching in the Burton district.

Robert Swain of Lisbon, whose death occurred Saturday, was a former resident of this town, his wife being the daughter of Mrs. Lydia Pierce, who died a few years ago at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Swain.

Friends of Mrs. Herbert Pollard were sorry to learn of her illness with diphtheria at her home on Walnut street, Willimantic.

Getting Ready for Bell.

Work will soon begin on the belfry of the Bethel church to strengthen it sufficiently for the weight of the bell, which will be about 1,300 pounds, including the metal frame.

The new bell, consisting of I. O. Burdick, H. L. Burton, Sterry Kinney, P. J. Gustafson and R. H. Young has been appointed to take charge of the work, also of the painting of the church, which will be done as soon as the weather will permit.

HANOVER

Miss Frances Walkley Gives Illustrated Lecture on Palestine.

The monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Bennett.

Attended Group Meeting.

Miss Helen Eadie attended a group meeting conducted by the junior secretaries of the Eastern Connecticut branch, W. B. M., in New London Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Park visited the C. E. second of the Jewett City Congregational church Sunday evening.

Lecture on Palestine.

A lecture on Palestine, illustrated with pictures and curios, was given under the auspices of the Sunday school Wednesday evening by Miss Frances Walkley of Plainfield, Conn.

Miss Walkley is well known throughout the state as a Sunday school expert. She recently returned from a camping trip through the Holy Land and is now giving lectures throughout the state.

Mrs. M. McMahon is ill.

Quite a number of the Baltic-Emeralds of Willimantic basketball game Wednesday evening.

William Ladd is at St. Joseph's hospital, Willimantic, for treatment.

Windham County

CENTRAL VILLAGE

High School Janitor in Quarantine—Live Bee Found in Jessamine From Florida—Mrs. Stainthorpe's Death.

Mrs. John Murdoch has returned from Warren, R. I., where she has been spending several months with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Murdoch.

Miss Allan Moffit of Waregon and Mrs. Ray Bilven are in Canterbury to see a relative, Mrs. Fannie Stanton, who is ill.

Earl Collins has been spending a week at his home in Warren, R. I., Janitor in Quarantine.

Charles McFarland is janitor at the high school building during the absence of Janitor Clarence Peterson who is quarantined on account of the illness of his wife, who is recovering from a mild attack of diphtheria.

Mrs. Mary Noble, an assistant at the Children's County home in Putnam has been spending a few days with her daughter, Miss Annie Noble.

Miss Hazel Evers was in Norwich Monday.

Edward Gallagher and daughter, Mary, spent Saturday with Blackstone relatives.

Flowers and Bee From Florida.

Mrs. Clarence Peterson who is recovering from diphtheria has received a box of jessamine blossoms from Mrs. Willis Rouse, who is spending the winter at St. Cloud, Florida. A live bee was found in the box when it arrived from the sunny South.

Rev. Frank Fuller of Abington was a Saturday visitor here.

Mrs. Edward Brennan of Dayville and Mrs. Joseph Levalley of Baltic spent Sunday here with relatives.

George Loring has been assisting in Frederick Brewster's store during the absence of Harry Stainthorpe, who has been off duty on account of the illness and death of his mother, Mrs. Jonas Stainthorpe.

Mrs. Israel Seguin has returned from several days' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Frank E. Putnam.

Death of Mrs. Jonas Stainthorpe.

Mrs. Jonas Stainthorpe of Moosup died Monday, at the home of her son, Harry Stainthorpe, to whose home she came several weeks ago, on account of ill health. Her husband died several years ago. She leaves a son, Harry Stainthorpe of this village, a daughter, Mrs. Edward Tatro and two grandsons of Worcester.

Nurse Becomes Ill.

Mrs. Fannie Stanton, a nurse from Canterbury was taken ill at the home of Thomas Weaver, where she has been caring for Mrs. Weaver for two weeks. Monday her mother, Mrs. Henry Williams was called here from Canterbury to care for her. She was threatened with a fatal pneumonia.

Local Briefs.

William Broadhead and son, Walter, were in Providence, Saturday.

Mrs. Narcissa Caplette was in Moosup Saturday to attend the funeral of Samuel Beane.

Mrs. William Dean and Miss Phoebe Barber were in Norwich Monday to attend the funeral of their cousin, Rev. Asahel H. Wilcox.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jewett spent Sunday with relatives in Southbridge, Mass.

Clifford Williams of Canterbury visited local relatives Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Caswell returned Monday to Narragansett Pier, R. I., after visiting at William Dean's and L. Howard Cross's.

DAYVILLE

Address to Men's Club—Concert in Columbia Hall a Success.

Mr. and Mrs. William Watson have left the Attawaug company and have obtained work at South Framingham, Mass.

Mrs. C. A. Russell is spending two weeks with Mrs. C. F. Marble of Worcester, Mass.

The Ladies' Aid society met with Mrs. F. W. Bennett Tuesday. An unusually large number was present and had a most enjoyable time.

The Men's club met Monday evening and listened to a fine address, given by a classmate of Rev. John Wright.

William Bennett spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Fannie Bennett.

Miss Ethel Fish has returned to Mystic after a visit with her sister, Mrs. L. L. Russell.

Miss Mary Kelley has been visiting in West Thomaston, Vermont.

Mrs. Charles Vincent and son, have been guests of Caleb Blanchard and family.

Successful Concert.

The concert given in Columbia hall Friday evening, in charge of the Ladies' Aid committee of the church, and March was a pleasing success.

E. A. Knight took William Watson's place in the mill of the Assawaug Co.

Harry Schmidt who was taken to the Day Kimball hospital for an operation for appendicitis is gaining very fast and may return home Sunday.

SCOTLAND

Singing Club Plans Musical Entertainment—W. C. T. U. Concert.

The W. C. T. U. held its regular meeting at the church Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Burnham were Norwich visitors Tuesday.

The Ladies' Aid society held its meeting Wednesday at the chapel.

The singing club is to give a musical entertainment in the Grange hall, Director Charles D. Geer of Norwich will furnish the music.

Other out of town singers will take part.

There was an error last week in the account of the W. C. T. U. concert. The amount taken at the concert was about $27, and the profit was $18.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zeigler have been attending relatives.

Miss Agnes Plimney has commenced work in the mill at Willimantic.

Mrs. Nicholas Beck recently entered St. Joseph's hospital for a surgical operation.

Albert H. Kimball, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Kimball, is convalescing.

Harold Kenyon has been confined to the house for a week, because of the mumps.

EAST WOODSTOCK

Clover Circle's Meeting—Social at the Church.

Clover circle meets with Agnes White this (Saturday) afternoon. The leader is Clara Eddy.

Mrs. B. E. Eddy is visiting relatives in Hartford.

Charles Gile is taking a few days vacation, visiting out of town friends.

C. H. Potter and George Phillips have been in Hartford this week attending a hearing at the capitol.

Mr. and Mrs. May and Mr. and Mrs. E. May and P. N. May and wife, attended the funeral of Asa L. May at Howard, R. I., last Saturday.

A social was given by Mrs. P. A. Jordan, Mrs. Wendell Witter and Mrs. Chester E. Eddy last Friday evening.

The entertainment was in the church and consisted of a character play, The Temple of Fame, and a flag drill. Refreshments were served in the chapel at the close.

WOODSTOCK

Mother's Day at School—Illustrated Lecture by Rev. F. B. Harrison.

The Ladies' Benevolent society held a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Sampson on Friday evening.

Mrs. J. J. Williamson has been spending a few days in Danielson.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bingham of the Springfield school has been visiting her mother, Mrs. F. W. Flynn.

Wednesday was observed as Mother's day in the Woodstock Hill school.

Illustrated Address.

Rev. F. B. Harrison gave a lecture Sunday evening which was illustrated by the stereoscope. The title was "Among the Tennessee Mountains."

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Masters of Uxbridge, Mass., have been guests of Dr. Joseph Spaulding.

PACKER

Arthur Bassett recently moved on the Farm place.

Napoleon Lagassey of Sterling spent the week end here visiting friends.

Joseph Dows visited schools Wednesday.

Amos Bergeron has purchased the Chapman place.

Albert Millard spent several days recently visiting friends in Willimantic.

Miss Ida A. Scott of South Canterbury is spending a few days with Miss Evelyn Browning.

RAWSON

Mrs. J. J. Fitzgerald and son, Francis, were in Putnam Wednesday.

Mrs. Marion Hammond spent several days recently with relatives in Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Frank Phillips was in Willimantic Monday.

J. J. Fitzgerald and daughter, Anna, were in Brooklyn recently.

Charles Cady was a Willimantic visitor Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Welsh entertained relatives from Boston recently.

THE MOHICAN COMPANY

Fine, Mealy Cooking

Best Mohican Creamery

Potatoes, pk. 12¹/₂c BUTTER, lb. 32c

15 lbs. to peck, limited 2 pecks to customer

3 lbs. 95c

EXTRAORDINARY PURE FOOD SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY

Sugar Cured Smoked SHOULDERS, lb. 10c	Little Pig PORK LOINS lb. 12c	Round—Sirloin—Short STEAK lb. 15c	Legs of LAMB lb. 15c
---------------------------------------	-------------------------------	-----------------------------------	----------------------

Sugar Cured HAM Whole or Half, 15c	RIB ROAST BEEF lb. 15c	FORE LAMB lb. 10c	BREAKFAST BACON, lb. 14c	SALT PORK lb. 10c
FRESH PIG SHOULDERS, lb. 11c	LEAN POT ROAST lb. 10c	FRESH CUT HAMBURGER, lb. 12 ¹ / ₂ c	LOINS LAMB lb. 10c	SLICED HAM lb. 20c

Yellow ONIONS 6 lbs. 10c	Large Messina LEMONS doz. 15c	Fresh Country EGGS dozen 25c	PEANUT BUTTER lb. 12c
--------------------------	-------------------------------	------------------------------	-----------------------

Sweet, Juicy ORANGES 20 for 25c	Extra Heavy GRAPE FRUIT 6 for 25c	Swift's Pure LARD lb. 12c	Milk CHEESE lb. 15c
---------------------------------	-----------------------------------	---------------------------	---------------------

Swiss CHEESE lb. 25c	MOHICAN Special Bread FLOUR 1-8 bbl. sack $1 bbl. $7.95	Soda, Milk, Oyster CRACKERS 2 lbs. 15c
----------------------	---	--

Prepared BUCKWHEAT 3 lbs. 13c—5 lbs. 20c	1 can Soup, 1 pkg. Vermicelli, 1 bottle Catsup, 25c	HUNT'S PINEAPPLE, can. 15c
--	---	----------------------------

MOHICAN PURE JAM and JELLIES Jar 23c—Glass 14c	For Stewing, 3 lbs. 20c	WHOLE BEETS can. 13c
--	-------------------------	----------------------

FRESH FROM OUR OVENS DAILY—MADE BY EXPERT BAKERS	Chocolate Cream DOUGHNUTS dozen 12c	LAYER CAKES With Fruit Filling each 8c-12c	Fresh PIES each 5c-10c	Fresh Made Rye Bread, loaf 8c	Home Made Bread, loaf 6c-8c	Sandwich Bread, loaf 6c-10c
--	-------------------------------------	--	------------------------	-------------------------------	-----------------------------	-----------------------------

BROOKLYN

Straw Ride to Mulberry Hill—Papers Read Before Women's Club—Meeting of Baptist Church.

Friday evening the Ladies' Benevolent society of the Congregational church gave a straw ride to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Meyer on Mulberry Hill, where games were played, refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

Mrs. Della L. Walker is visiting friends in West Haven.

Howard Travis of Newton, Mass., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Palmer over Sunday.

Miss Ethel Avery spent Sunday with friends in Norwich.

Miss Bertha Sharp is spending a short vacation with her mother, Mrs. James Lewis.

Women's Club Meets.

Monday afternoon the Women's club met with Miss Charlotte Scarborough as hostess. The roll call was selections from Wordsworth, Coleridge and Southey. Papers were read by Mrs. Anna D. Pond and Mrs. Henry Maine. Capt. Hugh Mason read a paper on the coast survey of the Philippines.

Baptist Church Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Baptist church was held Wednesday. In the forenoon a roll call of the church was held at which 27 were present and responded to the roll call.

At 2 o'clock a dinner was served in the vestry, and at 2 o'clock the business was taken up. The treasurer's report showed all bills paid with a balance in the treasury. Irving W. Chapman was elected trustee for three years. D. Thorne D. Pond was elected clerk, an office he has held consecutively since 1884. Irving W. Chapman was elected treasurer and William B. Potter collector, these for one year each. After the business meeting, Rev. Dr. Blake gave a grand address.

After this the Ladies' Aid society met and talked over plans for the coming year. In all it was a very satisfactory day.

Mrs. Sidney W. Bard was in Bridgeport the past week.

Miss Ella S. Spaulding has returned to Pomfret to assist in caring for sick friends.

EKKON

Local Relatives Attend Funeral of Albert Gallup—Tenants Slip Away to Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Stanton and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gallup attended the funeral of their brother, Albert Gallup, of Hartford, Monday.

Rev. Martin Lovering of the Scotland Congregational church officiated at the service at the grave. Mr. Gallup leaves one son, Raymond (aged 15 years), two brothers and two sisters.

At Dayville Funeral.

Rev. Mr. Reynolds officiated at the funeral of Mrs. Burnett of Dayville last week. Next Sunday he will occupy the pulpit of the Congregational church in Danielson.

Miss Sanborn will have charge of the Sunday morning service here.

E. B. Gallup transacted business in Hartford Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Potter have gone from the home of Jared Gallup to Jewett City.

Mrs. Nellie Frink is visiting in Danielson. Lucy Crane is keeping house for her.

Tenants Slip Out to Norwich.

The family living in Alvin Corey's tenement house folded their tent and silently stole away to Norwich Sunday.

Several from here attended a meeting of Plainfield grange Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Stanton visited their son in Norwich Tuesday and Wednesday.

Earl Davis has finished sawing the last lot.

Edwin Gallup sprained his ankle Sunday morning.

Fifth Number in Pageant Series.

The fifth number of the pageant series at the Ekkon Congregational church last Sunday evening was unusually successful. Miss Gladys Gallup as the spirit of Thessalonica, recited the historical facts very beautifully. The dialogue between St. Paul (Harry Sayles) and Silas (Charles H. Barber) was well given. The poem by Mrs. Thomas Brown, The Holy Grail, was recited with fine effect. The music was also much enjoyed and the service was largely attended.

The programme for tomorrow (Sunday) will include Miss Julia Sayles as the spirit of Corinth, Harry Sayles as Athens and the beginning of the work in Corinth, and Everett Gallup as St. Luke in a letter to Theophilus.

CANTERBURY GREEN

Church Interests—Three Graces in Charge of Grange Meeting—Farms Change Owners.

The pastor's sermon last Sunday was on Recognition of and gratitude for the manifestation of God's power in His world. The text Ps. 72:18, Blessed be Jehovah God, who only doeth wonderful things. Next Sunday there will be the celebration of Our Lord's supper following the morning service.

The evening Christian Endeavor at 7 o'clock will be a consecration meeting. Subject "How to Make this a Happier World." Prov. 1:18-18.

Junior Christian Endeavor 3 p. m. at parsonage. Subject, The Friends of Christ. Luke 1:13-16. Leader, Evelyn Graves. This is a consecration meeting. A short business meeting will follow.

Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Hetrick attended Monday in Norwich, the funeral of Mr. Hetrick's old friend, Rev. Asahel H. Wilcox, formerly pastor at Plainfield and much beloved throughout this region.

Children's Night at Grange.

The next Grange meeting Wednesday the 17th, will be Children's night. A pleasant program was enjoyed at the meeting this week, being given by the three graces, who are Mrs. Henry Larkham, Miss Edith Williams and Mrs. Jennie Hawley.

Mrs. A. A. Francis is visiting her son, John Francis, of Moosup.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Frink motored to Hartford Thursday.

Surprised on Birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Larkham were given a surprise party last Saturday night on Mr. Larkham's birthday. A pleasant evening was spent in games followed by an oyster supper which was given by George Larkham's treat.

The Teeter place next to Walter Burdick's has been bought by Henry Kenyon.

George Towne, brother of William Towne, is ill at North Society, as also are Mr. Proctor and Henry Seltman.

The latter is in a critical condition. Mr. Seltman's daughter, Mrs. Delmuth of Bridgeport, has come to be with her parents.

Two sparrows of a week ago are not now singing on the Green. Nor have the robins appeared again during this cold weather.

Farm Sold.

John Glebus of Long Island has bought George Potoin's place on Black Hill.

Freeman J. Christian has sold his farm at North Society, that he may move nearer the High School and more easily educate his children.

Mrs. William S. Babcock is ill at her home on the Plainfield road.

Mrs. Lewis Lyon and her daughter, Edna Flint, visited Mrs. Charles Sargent last Saturday at Laurel Hill, Norwich.

Lewis Lyon is successfully running a saw mill which he has established near his blacksmith shop, having made pipe connection from a spring of water in the fields beyond. Ed. Linke and Harry Flint were assisting in the log sawing last week.

T. L. Wilson of New York was at home over the week-end. Ed. Linke has engaged with Mr. Wilson to work on his farm.

HAMPTON

Minister Resigns—Benevolent Work of Women's Organizations.

The Medicine company has gone to New Boston, after playing three nights in this town, advertising their medicines.

North Windham people gave a play here this Saturday night.

Practical Benevolence.

The Ladies' Aid and Harmony clubs met in the chapel Wednesday to discuss the resignation of George L. Drown, the Congregational minister, recited with fine effect. The music was also much enjoyed and the service was largely attended.

The programme for tomorrow (Sunday) will include Miss Julia Sayles as the spirit of Corinth, Harry Sayles as Athens and the beginning of the work in Corinth, and Everett Gallup as St. Luke in a letter to Theophilus.

Leighton E. Noworthy is working near Norwich.

Joseph Burchinal was in Willimantic Tuesday.

M. E. Phillips goes by here daily with a large auto-truck owned by Charles Phillips of Plainfield. He is drawing lumber for Ray Baker's new house.

SOUTH KILLINGLY

Entertainment by Putnam Congregational Church—Visitors to Mrs. F. O. Stewart.

The fourth in the series of entertainments given by the Putnam Congregational church, the concert consisted of several selections by the choir and ladies' chorus, also solos, singing of the choir, of William Child, this week, money came and I love 100 and, by Miss Child's father, and good will, and followed by Miss Child's father.

The pastor's discourse Sunday evening was based upon the words found in Matt. 22:37, "I will give him the kingdom of heaven."

The Willing Workers are holding meetings each week preparing articles for a sale to be held in Danielson.

Injured Rip and Started Fire.

A horse named Rip, became dizzy while about his work Tuesday morning and fell, injuring his leg so badly that he was unable to get up, as he fell he struck some iron coils and set fire to the barn.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Conroy who live in the house with her husband, a carpenter, and followed by Miss Child's father.

Mr. H. Conroy was in Canterbury Tuesday to see his mother who is ill.

</